United Crusade Full Activity to Raise Quota

The United Crusade for this is now in full swing. Albany County is expected to raise total of $2,889,138 for the health, welfare and youth agency serving an estimated 800,000 residents. Under the leadership of Bert F. Griffin, Albany County will be out to raise $14,000 as the city's share of this total.

Griffin says there are 250 agencies actively doing the humanitarian work you would like to see done, but do not have the money. These agencies work 365 days a year around the clock. Thirteen of these agencies are serving the people of Albany directly.

Griffin says: "Warden Duffy and Quentin said that he never printed a man at San Quentin who had a Boy Scout background. It costs $2,000 a year to keep a man in San Quentin. It costs $7.46 a year to equip a man to be a Boy Scout."

Griffin has his volunteer workers and directors well organized and he asks the help of every citizen in furthering the drive.

This Is Albany

MRS. KATHE ZAHN was all smiles this week over the news that her son, Egon Viktor Zahn Jr., had telephoned her from Cleveland at 2 o'clock in the morning to report the birth of his first child, a son, weighing 6 pounds, 9 ounces. "This makes six grandchildren," she said.

INSTRUCTION IN FLAG etiquette will be given to members of Cub Pack 50 during a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Friday in the Veterans Memorial Building. Cubmaster Gil Freels said the instruction will be offered by members of Albany Post of the American Legion, which sponsors the pack.

Eddie Bernard, James Terhune, Leonard Thompson and Robert Woolworth will be initiated into the Pack. The Cub Scouts will be given United Crusade circulars, which they will distribute as a civic activity.

THE MOTHERS CLUB of Boy Scout Troop 12 will commence their Fall and Winter activities with a meeting on Thursday

Albany Unites In Celebration Of 50th Birthday

The streets are full of bewhiskered doctors, lawyers, merchants, chiefs' vieing with one another for supremacy in their display of more or less elaborate hirsute adornment common in the days of 50 years ago when Albany first became a city.

The women folk, too, are gracing the city's streets in costumes that their forebears wore in the days of Lillian Russell, the Seven Sutherland Sisters and the Florida Sextet.

September 22 was the actual anniversary of the incorporation of Albany as a city. But things have continued all week, and will wind up with a big parade and an elaborate program Saturday, with the finale a program at Memorial Park on Sunday with a community picnic, the 'Whiskerino' awards, the 'Bow and Bonnets' awards, and the giving out of prizes by many Albany-merchants.

Saturday's program includes a Little League baseball game at 10 a.m. at Memorial Park; the huge Anniversary Parade with some sixty or more floats and decorated cars, starting at 1:30; Folk Dancing at Memorial Park at 2:30 p.m., and Street Dancing in two groups—one between San Pablo and Adams, and the other between San Pablo and Kains, starting at 9 p.m.

There is also the big Carnival on the east side of San Pablo Avenue at the north city limits, together with numerous window displays of antiques recalling the early days of the city by the merchants, and special events at many of the stores on San Pablo and Solano Avenues.

More Than Fifty Now Entered in Saturday Parade

More than 50 entries already have been received for the big Anniversary Parade to be held early Saturday afternoon. They have come from as far away as Modesto, San Leandro, San Francisco and Mountain View. The list includes organizations as well as individuals, military and civilian, serious and comic, and will be well worth seeing.

GRAND MARSHAL INSTALLED

The last item on the city council's agenda Monday night was a resolution naming Frank J. Roberts Jr. as Grand Marshal for the Albany Golden Anniversary parade. It was moved, seconded and unanimously passed. Mayor Howell then called Mr. Roberts to his desk for installation in a humorous question and answer ceremony, in which the new parade official agreed to properly fulfill his duties, and to forward the interests of his native city to the best of his ability.

It was a unique event in the history of Albany for Mr. Roberts' father, the late Frank J. Roberts, was Albany's first mayor, and it was in honor of the mayor's birthplace, Albany, New York, that the name of this city was changed from its original "Ocean View" to Albany. Just as important is the fact that this week's grand marshal was the first baby born after the incorporation of the city. Both city and grand marshal are therefore joining officially in the celebration of their fiftieth birthdays.

The council members as well as most of the audience were attired in costumes appropriate to the days a half century or more ago, with plumed hats and authentic gowns of the day for the ladies, and bewhiskered jowls and colored vests topped by derby hats for the men.

In the more serious business of the evening there were a number of matters which failed to bring unanimous approval from the council members. The Central Labor Council had requested that the Albany Council go on record as opposed to Proposition 18 on the November ballot, the so-called "Right-to-Work" measure.

Councilman Blank opposed having the council go on record either way, declaring that in such matters the council should not take sides, however they might feel personally on the subject. He moved that the council deny the requested backing, and was seconded by Councilman Donahue. The measure passed 4 to 1, with the mayor voting "No," explaining that he favored granting the support requested.

A request of the Senior Center Foundation Board that the city donate the recreation department property on Masonic Avenue to the Foundation to permit the erection of a Senior Citizen Center at that location, brought on quite a discussion.

The Senior Citizen group which has been meeting at the Masonic Avenue location for several years, is one of two Senior Citizen groups in the city. The other group has been meeting in one of the buildings at University Center. The Masonic Avenue group was formed some four years ago and later split, one accepting the offer of the city of a meeting place at University Center. The original group has planned from the first to eventually have a building all its own and a building fund was started early in its history, with trustees to acquire and handle funds.

Mrs. Zahn spoke at some length in favor of the property donation request, but her motion to that end lost for want of a second. Other councilmen declared they were in favor of doing something of the kind for the Senior Citizens but would like further time to discuss the matter from all angles. City Attorney Robert Foley, answering a request for a ruling, declared that the city could not dispose of property except by sale, and then only by offering it for sale by public bidding. He said, however, if the council chose they could grant a long term lease to the organization if they so desired.

Mrs. Zahn then moved to grant the Senior Citizen group a fifty year lease on the property, but this, too, lost for want of a second.

A communication from the Oakland Scavenger Company offering to meet with the council members concerning the serious refuse disposal problem was held over to the next meeting of the council on the ground that council members, the city engineer, and State Assemblyman Don Mulford were to meet September 25 at the Dump for a serious study of the problems involved.

A Traffic and Safety Commission recommendation that the one-hour time parking limit on the east side of Ramona Avenue, south of Solano Avenue, be extended an additional 100 feet, was approved, 4 to 1, Mrs. Zahn voting "No."

Many of the old pictures in this and previous issues of the Times are due to the courtesy of Gerald Browne, Albany's Assistant Fire Chief and Director of Civilian Defense. Mr. Browne was kind enough to dig up the old cuts and help in their identification.

SCOUTMASTER FRANK BIRCH of Albany Troop 12 reports 22 boys returned from an exhilarating 2-day week end in the Plumas National Forest. Camp was pitched Saturday night on the bank of Fall River under ideal weather conditions.

A steep 6-mile hike on Sunday enabled the boys to see Feather Falls, the third highest unbroken waterfall in the United States. Church services were held at an ancient Indian Village along the trail by Chaplain Mike Still. Because of its remote location, Feather Falls is visited by only a few nature lovers, although it is a grand spectacle with its 638-foot fall. Troop 12 is sponsored by Albany American Legion Post 292.

In The Albany Churches

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The spiritual, harmonious nature of God's creation including man will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday at 533 San Pablo Avenue in Albany.

Among the Bible passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Reality" is this one: "The prophet that hath a dream, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat? saith the Lord" (Jeremiah 23: 28).

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include this: "Jesus' demonstrations sift the chaff from the wheat, and unfold the unity and the reality of good, the unreality, the nothingness, of evil" (269: 5). The Golden Text is from Psalms (45: 6): "Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever; the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre."

Christian Science Society, Albany, holds regular Sunday Services at 11 a.m. and Wednesday Evening Meetings at 8 p.m. at 533 San Pablo Avenue. Sunday School is held at 9:30 a.m.

GRACE LUTHERAN

Rally Day will be observed in both services next Sunday at Grace Lutheran Church, Santa Fe Avenue at Ward. The Rev. O. R. Janke, pastor, will speak on the theme, "Building for Eternity," the theme of this year's observance of Lutheran Education Week.

While the regular order of worship will be used in the 11 a.m. service, in the 9:45 a.m. service a special order will be used including the participation of the entire Sunday School. The primary department children under the direction of Mrs. O. Janke will sing several songs, and the entire staff of teachers and officers will be commissioned by the pastor.

Next Monday at 7:30 p.m. the monthly plenary session of all parish committees will be held under chairmanship of Robert Kratzke. Reports will be heard on the parish program of evangelism, education and stewardship.

COMMUNITY METHODIST

Albany Community Methodist Church joins in wishing "Happy Birthday To The City of Albany" on its 50th Anniversary. This church is observing its 51st Anniversary this year, and is Albany's oldest church.

Rev. Douglas H. Henderson, Pastor, will speak this coming Sunday at 9:45 and 11 a.m. services on the theme, "Retracing the Steps of John Calvin in Switzerland." The choir will be under the direction of Mr. James Gould. Church School for all ages will be held at 9:45 a.m.

School Board to Explain Losses From Cafeterias

The Albany Board of Educa-tion will hold a "Town hall meet-ing" Sept. 30 to explain to the general public how the school dis-trict is losing money in the cafe-teria business.

The meeting will be held, ap-propriately enough, in the Cor-nell School cafeteria at 8:00 p.m.

The problem is a simple one. Albany's three school cafeterias are not supporting themselves. The School District annually bud-gets about $5000 to pay expenses. Returns rarely exceed $3000. In 1957-58, for example, $5200 was budgeted and $3271 was returned for a deficit of $1930.

Since the cafeterias can't pay their own way, the taxpayers must pick up the tab. It costs them approximately one cent per $100 assessed valuation to do so.

"We must decide whether the taxpayers are willing to continue paying for this service," School Superintendent Kenneth Forry has said.

Forry and his staff made a con-certed effort to build business last year without raising the prices for meals. Menus were printed a month in advance and sent to the parents. Business did pick up by better than $1000.

Forry's statistics show that of the children who normally eat lunch at school 25 to 30 per cent of them ate in the three cafeterias.

"This is a higher percentage than most schools make in other districts" the superintendent pointed out.

Meal prices are nominal, to say the least. Lunches at Albany High School cost 35 cents. They are only 25 cents in the Marin and Cornell Elementary school cafe-terias. Adults pay 50 cents in all three.

"With the low prices, "cafeterias generally lost money," Forry said. "The public must decide how much it wants them."

Old Hansom Cab
Parade Entry of
Ellis Olsons

Harold W. and May Ellis Olson have entered an ancient hansom cab in Saturday's Golden Anni-versary Parade. The cab was de-signed by Joseph Aloysias Han-som of London, England in 1865. It was built by Brewster and Studebaker, famous carriage and coach makers. From this particu-lar vehicle came the expression of "Shut Your Trap."

The coachman sits up above the roof in the back of the cab and talks to his passengers by a trap door in the roof of the cab. The cab comes from the fam-ous collection of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeGrasse of Albany. The little Shetland pony is champion harness pony for northern Cal-ifornia for 1958. His name is 'Country Boy.' He is 42 inches tall, trained, shown and driven by Mr. DeGrasse. Yvonne A. Walkup, daughter of the Olsons, will be riding in the hansom cab and wearing her grandmother's original garden dress.

A PORTION OF THE 1913 ALBANY PARADE passing the church building that was later rebuilt and became the Maccabees Hall.

AWAY BACK in the summer of 1891 the Peralta Park Hotel, with 120 rooms, was opened near the spot where Domingo Peralta had built his adobe ranch house. The hotel location was in a spot at the extreme southeast corner of what is now the City of Albany. The building successively became "Mrs. Sprague's School For Girls," "Professor Dunn's School For Boys," and in 1903 was acquired by the Christian Brothers and was known as "St. Joseph's Academy." Afterward it became "Saint Mary's High School." The builder of the old hotel was a noted Polish actor named Maurice B. Curtis, or Samuel F. B. Curtis, who had gained world wide renown in "Sam'l O' Posen," a play which he had written and produced.

742 San Pablo Ave., ALBANY

LA 5-6427

Several local men are included in Battery A, 728th Missile Battalion (Nike) now located at San Pablo Ridge, which recently was converted from Battery A, 728th Battalion (90 mm Gun), which was located on Point Richmond Hill.

The Nike site at San Pablo Ridge is a double battery site, that is it is equipped with two sets of radars and two sets of launchers. The battery will be made up of 30 full time technicians who will work 40 hours a week, and the remainder of the 55 member unit will be filled by men in other jobs who report only for drills, just as in any other National Guard unit.

In February, 1959 the full time technicians will go to Fort Bliss, Texas for troop and package training and to fire some missiles. In February, just prior to leaving for Fort Bliss, about 15 men who are then members of the unit will be hired as full time technicians.

At present only prior service men may join the unit due to California's quota of 6 months Active Duty Trainees being filled for several months to come, but it is hoped that six months (non prior service) men may be taken before February. 1st Lt. Walter Witte, commanding officer, may be contacted at 118 321st or visit the Nike site where drills are held every other Sunday, with credit being given for two drills during the eight hours.

Among present members of the Battery are PFC Allen C. Boam, 513 Evelyn Avenue, Albany; PFC Robert D. Lollar, 5709 San Diego St., El Cerrito, and PFC Charles S. Stone, 1118 Evelyn Ave., Albany.

In Celebration of Albany's Golden Anniversary . . .

LET'S GET ACQUAINTED

From some of the town's old-timers to all of the town's new-comers . . . a hearty welcome and cordial invitation to come in and get acquainted! Many of us have been doing business hereabouts since grandpa courted grandma. All of us hold steadfast to the old-fashioned idea that making friends out of customers is the only way to build a good business. That's why we hope to see you real soon . . . whether you're new in town or just haven't been in lately . . . whether you come to buy or to browse or just to say "hello!" We'll be mighty pleased to meet you . . . and will do our best to make that pleasure mutual. We're looking forward to your early visit!

IN FACT, we rememer many a whole family from "way back" . . . have continued faithfully to serve one generation after another from the days of bustles and buggies to the age of jet propulsion. True, times and styles have changed since first we opened our doors for business. But basic principles endure.
